this book assesses the strategic significance of the asian infrastructure investment bank aiib by examining the logic of international power and order historic trends in east asian international relations the aiib s design in comparison to rival financial institutions such as the world bank and the asian development bank recent tendencies in chinese foreign policy and the chinese system of political economy it focuses on how china constructs international arrangements at a critical juncture in history compared to other great powers especially the united states and japan viewed in isolation the aiib does not represent a radical departure from the existing international order it is a hybrid institution built on china s integration into the west dominated international structure and conditioned by the global financial market but the aiib does draw in part from a different institutional lineage a different historical root and a different national system of political economy in this context china s greater success will constitute a partial change to the existing international order whatever the chinese intention diploma thesis from the year 2018 in the subject law public law constitutional law basic rights grade 64 de montfort university leicester business and law course law language english abstract this paper examines the question how based on the right to life the lifes of people with albinism can and should be protected in the case of kenya the right to life is an inherent right and both state and non state actors have legal obligations to refrain from intentional and unlawful deprivation of life in spite of this the belief and practice of witchcraft are traditionally rooted in a number of african communities this has led in a series of violations of the rights of persons living with albinism the most barbaric of all being the evisceration of their body parts or bones to use them in witchcraft rituals aimed to bring success in one s life cure diseases and also keep evil at bay nevertheless this study examines the legal significance of international treaties protecting the right to life and security of persons living with albinism an illustration of the principles established in the convention on the rights of persons with disabilities and other core international norms that ordinarily protect the right to life will be demonstrated notably international human rights serve as a catalyst for legal change through furthering the promotion of fundamental human rights in light of this observation this study illustrates national court cases domestic laws and practices structured by the kenyan government that comply with its international obligations in promoting and preserving the right to life of people with albinism
